

---

Emily Hoppe

Teaching Artist

(256) 682-1193
hoppearts@gmail.com

SKILLS

Connecting People; Crisis Management; Creative Problem Solving; Adaptability

EXPERIENCE

Alabama Waldorf School, Birmingham, AL - Music Teacher

JULY 2014 - PRESENT

- Teach general music and storytelling to 1st-8th grade students including instruction in choir, recorders, violins, ukuleles, and acting.
- Formerly Faculty Chair, lead faculty and team meetings, created and maintained documents for policies and procedures, and organized class scheduling for teachers.

Red Mountain Theatre Company, Birmingham, AL - Teaching Artist

JUNE 2012 - PRESENT

- Developed an introductory musical theatre program for ages 4-6 and directed original works of musical theatre to ages 7-12.
- Teach basic music and storytelling classes for children and adults in the area including at The Exceptional Foundation, The Horizons School, and Fairfiend elementary schools through Better Basics.

South City Theatre, Pelham, AL - Youth Programming Director

AUGUST 2017 - DECEMBER 2020

- Designed and taught homeschool and after school classes for students aged 5-18 as well as directing children's productions.
- Served on the Board overseeing creative and financial decisions for the production as well as voting on proposals for the Theatre.

EDUCATION

Samford University, Birmingham AL - B.A. in Theatre and Music

GRADUATED MAY 2013

Performed, directed, stage managed, and designed play and musicals.

CERTIFICATIONS

Certified Music Educator from the University of Montevallo Kodaly Institute

Vice-President of international music fraternity Delta Omicron

Vice-President of national theatre honor society Alpha Psi Omega

Licensed Shelby County Foster Parent

Certified in CPR and First Aid